Job Seeker Visa

To whom does this leaflet apply?

Skilled workers who have a university degree or professional qualification and are looking for a job in Germany. This visa is valid for a maximum of six months. It entitles the holder to take up trial employment for up to ten hours per week, but not to take up employment as part of a permanent position. After a successful search in Germany, the visa can be converted into a residence permit to take up an employment.

- 1. Please read the following information and the list of documents carefully.
- 2. Prepare the required documents for the application.
- 3. Book an appointment.
- 4. Please sort your documents in the given order.

Please note the following:

- Due to the high workload and in order to ensure equal treatment of all applicants, the visa section can only accept applications for processing in the requested form.
- Submitting incomplete documents can lead to the rejection of the application.
- Submitted documents that are sent unrequested cannot be assigned to your application.
- All documents, leaflets and application forms provided by the Embassy are free of charge.
- All information concerning the processing of the application can be found on our website
- Information about the research in the anabin database where you can find out how your certificate will be evaluated in Germany can be found in the separate leaflet "Notes on ANA-BIN".
- Please refrain from inquiries about the status of the application. Status inquiries do not speed up the visa process.

What kind of documents need to be submitted?

¹ The German Embassy in Riga can only accept a declaration of commitment if there is no other way to prove that you can secure your livelihood. Furthermore, we must assume that a credit check would be positive and the declaration of commitment would be enforceable in Germany. The obligor must have assets in Germany, e.g. a German bank account, so that the obligor's creditworthiness is "proven".
