

Working Holiday

To whom does this leaflet apply?

The Working Holiday Visa Program is based on bilateral agreements between Germany and Argentina, Australia, Brazil, Chile, Israel, Japan, New Zealand, the Republic of Korea, the SAR Hong Kong, Taiwan and Uruguay, as well as a Youth Mobility agreement with Canada.

The Working Holiday Programme aims at enabling young people to gain insight into culture and daily life in Germany. The intention is to promote increased mutual understanding and your primary aim should be to visit Germany. Employment is permitted throughout the validity of the visa but should remain of temporary character in order to facilitate additional financial means to your holiday travel intentions in Germany. Conditions regarding length and type of employment are governed by the individual bilateral agreement.

To be eligible for a Working Holiday you must be at least 18 years of age but have not turned 31 (35 for Canada) yet when filing your application and not be accompanied by dependent family members (e.g. children) during your stay.

Citizens of Australia, Canada, Israel, Japan and New Zealand may apply for their working holiday residence permit with the local immigration office ("Ausländerbehörde") after arrival in Germany and without having obtained a visa prior to travelling to Germany. Citizens of Argentina, Chile and Uruguay require a visa prior to travel to Germany and may apply at any German mission abroad. Other nationals should contact the German mission in their home country.

Citizens of Argentina and Chile may only get a working holiday visa for Germany once and must be in good health.

Citizens of Argentina may work for a total of six months only. Both fulltime and part-time for the same or several employers are allowed. Self-employment or freelance work is not permitted. It is, however, allowed to attend one or more basic and advanced training courses lasting up to six months in total.

Citizens of Chile may work for up to six months with the same employer. After that, employment may be continued for a different or several other employers for the remaining time. Both fulltime and part-time for the same or several employers are allowed. Self-employment or freelance work is permitted, but it is allowed to attend one or more basic and advanced training courses.

Citizens of Uruguay may work for up to six months with the same employer. After that, employment may be continued for a different or several other employers for the remaining time. Both fulltime and part-time for the same or several employers are allowed. Self-employment or freelance work is permitted.
